

A NEW VILLAIN HAS MADE HIS WAY TO EARTH. HIS NAME IS:

SPACE
INVADER

He is trying to make others break the rule of personal space so that they can make not-so-good impressions on others.

Well, Superflex will have none of that! He is working to help the citizens protect themselves from the space invader by helping them to remember:

- ☞ The one-arm rule
- ☞ Doing the check-in and reading the clues
- ☞ Putting on the brakes and stopping themselves from getting too close to someone else

Wait!

I think I hear the phone ringing. Has he struck again?
