

trap

1. I will set a trap to catch a mouse.
2. I like to trap coyotes in the winter.

camp

1. We will build a fire when we get to camp.
2. Jason went to scout camp last weekend.

shot

1. I had to get a shot from the nurse and it hurt.
2. The hunter shot a deer during his hunting trip.

shop

1. I love to shop for presents.
2. I will shop for groceries tomorrow.

place

1. Kim will place her trophy on the top shelf.
2. Place the mug in the cupboard.

cover

1. Place a cover on the fruit salad.
2. Cover the chicken before flies get on it.

staple

1. We need to staple the papers together.
2. Amy will staple the booklet before leaving.

shout

1. Don't shout inside the building.
2. I heard a shout for help.

float

1. I love to float in the swimming pool.
2. I drank a rootbeer float at lunch.

notice

1. Put the notice on the bulletin board.
2. I notice that you have a new shirt.

trust

1. My dad put his money in the trust fund.
2. Do you trust your new friend?

dance

1. Are you going to the school dance?
2. The dance is Friday night.

hammer

1. Ken purchased a hammer at the store.
2. Try not to hit your finger when you hammer.

post

1. My mom will post my chores on the fridge.
2. Our teacher will post the grades from our test.

pet

1. I have a small kitten for my pet.
2. Peter's pet hamster ran away.

beach

1. Jason loves to play at the beach.
2. Do you want to walk on the beach tonight?

cut

1. Please cut the carrots and potatoes.
2. I need to cut the paper into four pieces.

paw

1. My cat's paw is very big.
2. The dog will paw at the grass to find his food.

crash

1. Jason will try not to crash into the sign.
2. Jamie had a car crash.

top

1. Kara was playing with a top.
2. I sat on top of the bridge.

string

1. The guitar string broke when I was playing.
2. Please string the beads on the yarn.

smell

1. I love the smell of fresh flowers.
2. Babies have a good smell to them.

fire

1. We will build a fire when we get to camp.
2. If you don't work hard the boss will fire you.

wish

1. I like to make a wish when I see a falling star.
2. Make a wish then blow out your candles.

fight

1. There was a fight on the playground.
2. PJ is in trouble because he got in a fight.

pack

1. I need to pack for my vacation.
2. Paige needs to pack her suitcase.

love

1. I love my pet hamster.
2. Jason and Leslie love each other.